- Build relationships with people facing homelessness and connect them with Coordinated Entry and other resources.
- Create and maintain a trauma-informed environment on the street.
- Maintain appropriate professional boundaries.
- Maintain consistent implementation of program expectations.
- Educate persons on all applicable public health order compliance measures.
- Educate about public health orders and conduct screening and referral to respite centers, where necessary and appropriate.
- Aid existing Homeless Outreach Team members in their work to connect with and support housing efforts for high utilizers of Municipal Court and shelter systems.
- Provide year-round street outreach – rain, snow or shine – in the City of Boulder.
- Employ crisis intervention techniques with program participants as needed.

Additional Responsibilities:

- Meet with your manager and BTHERE outreach team for weekly supervision.
- Support staff in working from a team approach while making group decisions.
